Ippolito 1 Lt Console Lamp - Antique Brass / Natural

Tom Caldwell created a light profile for the Ippolito Brass Console Lamp and wrapped a portion of the stem near the base in jute rope. The stacked base, the rings that flank the rope, the long thin stem, and the finial are in an antique brass finish. The off-white linen shade is a pale element on the dressy console lamp that was designed to be a decorative and functional accent in a space.
