The Journey Natural & Brass Cordless Table Lamp has a sleek, portable design. The antique brass finish on the long thin stem that rises from a marble base and the cone-shaped shade bring it a subdued sophisticated gleam, while the pale marble globe anchors the piece. At just over 500mm tall, this compact lamp is easy to move and features an on/off button and a discreet battery-life indicator light on the side of the base, making recharging simple. Available: September.
